

7.1. CSTA TIC for SJP2

Paul Rossetti presented a request from the Catholic School Teachers Association (CSTA) regarding compensation for the Teacher-in-Charge (TIC) at St. John Paul II School while the administrator is absent. It was suggested that after the ninth day that the TIC is covering for the administrator, the teacher is paid based on the Vice Principal grid.

Paul Rossetti will discuss the suggestion with Leah MacKenzie and will provide a proposal for approval.

7.2. CCSTA

Paul Rossetti informed that the Catholic Independent Schools Committee of British Columbia CISCBC can select someone from the community to attend the Canadian Catholic School Trustees Association (CCSTA) meetings and the representative will also attend the CISCBC meetings in November. It was decided that Michael Doyle will be the candidate from CISCBC.

8.1. Superintendent's Report

Paul Rossetti gave a verbal report. He informed that a new Ombudsperson was elected for Vancouver Island.

8.2. Finances

8.2.1. 2023-24 Q1 Financials

Leah MacKenzie highlighted items on the financial report.

- Queen of Angels School Michael Doyle informed that the Local School Council and Parent Support Group have been active and there has been more involvement from the school community. There are three members of the Cowichan Tribes in the Local School Council.

8.6. Other

Bishop Gary Gordon informed that our Diocese is working in providing the proper training on Catholicity to all the staff in our schools.

was led by Michael Doyle.

the meeting at 5:21pm.

?

?